

Resident Architecture Services

A flexible option for customers who desire for enhanced collaboration with the intention of driving greater adoption, feature utilization, and Sourcegraph value given your individual needs and priorities.

Faster time to value

Increased value

Catered enablement and higher quality adoption

Overview

The RA program centers around jointly scoped & prioritized projects that are discussed throughout contracting, scoping, and quarterly review processes and often center around driving greater value through the use of Sourcegraph within your organization

Outcomes

- ✓ Accelerated time to value through tailored activities & materials specific to your teams and technology
- ✓ Dedicated Sourcegraph product & technical expertise
- ✓ Ongoing enablement on latest features and capabilities however your team prefers to remain informed

Sample Activities

Resident Architecture allows for a variety of custom projects centered around driving value and usage of Sourcegraph. Common examples of activities performed with Resident Architecture are:

- Immersive, customized user and administrator enablement
- Advanced and custom Sourcegraph feature utilization
- Deeply technical initiatives utilizing Sourcegraph to accomplish organizational goals
- Technical joint success planning to partner in evaluating internal needs and priorities and identifying the role Sourcegraph can play in achieving them

Packages

Resident Architecture offerings are packaged according to the number of annual hours to be provided by the Resident Architect depending on the needs and complexity of the expected projects.

Standard Resident Architecture

- 260 total annual hours at $65,000
- Great for smaller initiatives often focused on enablement

Advanced Resident Architecture

- 520 total annual hours at $100,000
- Additional time allows for larger complex technical projects

Talk to your account team today about how Resident Architecture can work with you!